

Y'all Ready to Rock?!

High Energy Fun Band Perfect for all Occasions

What people are saying about Junior:

"They put on a tremendous show! The students loved them and there was a constant group in front of the stage listening to them. I would love to bring them back in the near future! Also, I would like to continue working with you and your agency!"

-Chad Driscoll

St. Ambrose State University

"Junior is a fantastic band for college events with their upbeat sound and entertaining stage presence. You can't go wrong with Junior!"

-Matt Maples

West Texas A&M University

"The show was a lot of fun. The guys were really good with engaging the crowd and I had a lot of students thank me after the show for bringing in such a "fun" and different type of band!"

-Ashley Badow

Dana College

"The show was a lot of fun. A lot of students stayed after to talk with them and get CDs. We'd definitely be interested in having them again."

-Abbie Alsene

Monmouth College

Three southern boys, Kiley Bland, Steve Cox and Adam Hoffoss, from the Ark-La-Tex area had dreams of some day escaping the country back roads, trailer parks and barn dances to be in a rock and roll band. Well, those guys made their dreams come true, and their band is Junior.

Junior puts on a show like no one else. Their performances are electrifying, and they've played & toured with Bowling For Soup, The All American Rejects, American Hi-Fi, Everclear, Lifehouse, 12 Stones, and many more. They performed at the '02 & '04 Vans Warped Tour & the world famous Whisky A Go Go in Hollywood, CA. The band has received sponsorships from Budweiser True Music, Ernie Ball guitar & strings, Dean guitars, and Full Armor clothing.

Junior released their debut album in 2001 entitled Starving Artists of the Year, an EP in 2003 and a full length album, Y'all Ready To Rock?, in June 2005. The band's song 'Stand Up and Holler' was featured in 2005's Children Of The Dirt 2, a film featuring X-Games superstars Travis Pastrana and Kenny Bartram. This year the song was used in both the NHL and NBA Playoffs.

"NASCAR Man," a fan favorite track from Junior's current album, ARE WE FAMOUS YET?, has become a racing fan favorite. As heard during TV coverage of the 50th Daytona 500 (17.8 million viewers), "NASCAR Man" already had traction on Fox Sports, SPEED TV and Fuel TV. The track was also licensed by ESPN for usage on NASCAR Countdown, NASCAR Nationwide Busch Series Race and NASCAR Sprint Cup Race.
