This Month's Featured Artists...

Tim Session

Tim is a one man multi-instrumental jam band. With a loop pedal, he uses his feet to record guitar, bass, percussion and vocals in front of a live audience on the fly without missing a beat. Sets include originals as well as hits by James Brown, Grateful Dead, Garth Brooks, Snoop Dogg, The Beatles, Johnny Cash, Sublime, Plain White T's, Nelly and many more.

Fire Dog

This power trio serves up a playful attack of soul and surf, fresh and electric with influences ranging from Elvis Costello and David Bowie to The Beach Boys and The Flaming Lips. The FIRE DOG sound is a full of energy and optimism for the 21st century, so dance on people!

Chris Sabatino

Founder of "The Graffiti Lounge" and former stage artists for Mary J. Blige, Chris Sabatino is easily one of the most creative and talented body artists, caricaturists, and graffiti artists in the business. You can catch him at work at this year's NACA Mid America conference at the TalentPlus Entertainment booths.

Junior Takes SIUC Sunset Stage

The boys of Junior had Carbondale crowds on their feet July 10 as part of SIUC's weekly Summer Sunset series. Kiley, Adam and Steve rocked the 2,000 fans for two solid sets of punk rock, punk country and punk hip hop before heading back home to Texas to open for Edwin McCain the following night. Farshid Etniko to Perform at Mid America

Selected as a roving artist at this year's NACA Mid America, latin/jazz/blues guitarist Farshid Etniko is sure to stop people in their tracks with his acoustic music. He'll be performing all over the convention center on Thursday, October 30, so be sure to check him out!

Matthews to Hit Mid America NACA Mainstage

19-year-old singer/songwriter, and winner of MTVu's Best Music on Campus contest, Cameron Matthews makes his NACA debut this November along with Farshid at NACA Mid America in Peoria, Illinois. Guitar in hand, he'll be gracing the mainstage on Saturday, November 1. You can check out his recent write up in Playback Magazine HERE.
