MAY 2008

This Month's Featured Artists...

Love O Rama

Mixing music and multimedia in a unique and celebrated fashion, Love O Rama is a touring and entertainment collective that brings people together to spread love.

Farshid Etniko

Put Santana, The Gypsy Kings, Tito Puente, and Taj Mahal in a blender and you get Farshid Etniko; a very international sound that blends the best of the Middle East, Latin Percussion, and jazz inventions.

Animate Objects

Winners of the Best Hip Hop Song category in the 2008 Independent Music Awards for their hit single "El Dorado", Animate Objects integrate emcees, a DJ and live instrumentation. The band embodies the spirit and soul of the new generation of hip-hop music

Junior Rocks the Midwest

Texas based power trio Junior rocked St. Ambrose University April 26. Mixing punk rock influences with their southern rock roots, their setlist included tracks from their latest album "Are We Famous Yet?" as well as some classic and novelty covers served up "Junior-style"!

Earl Takes the Stage at Michigan Tech

Blues rockers Earl served up some much-appreciated southern fried rock to the students at Michigan Tech April 26 at one of their year's final concerts. Fronted by Jimmy Kennedy's powerhouse vocals and bluesy harmonica riffs, Earl has previously shared stages with The Gin Blossoms, Ted Nugent and Lynyrd Skynyrd

Jason Huneke Joins TalentPlus Entertainment

TalentPlus Entertainment proudly welcomes juggler/comedian Jason Huneke to its exclusive roster of variety entertainment. Huneke is nationally known and recognized for his edgy but clean comedy show. Jason's non-offensive routine is filled with dry, smart, and random humor along with animated juggling, manipulation and dance routines.
