November 2008

This month's featured artists...

Oblivious to Everyone

Jessica Johnson recently returned from Germany where she delivered a widely successful run of dates with her one woman show "Oblivious to Everyone".

She was even asked to do a string of dates in Russia in 2009! "Oblivious to Everyone" exposes, in a hilarious fashion, the inherent problems and issues with our 21st century media-driven society.

Javier Mendoza

Javier just returned from Florida where, guitar in hand, he played five shows in three days for the students at Florida Community College

Well Hungarians

Students at the University of North Iowa were treated to a bit of country flair from the Well Hungarians November 6 for their first ever "Country Hoedown" Celebration.

Midwest Avengers

Taking the stage by the light of the homecoming bonfire, the Midwest Avengers delivered a tight and powerful set of metal infused hip hop to the students at Missouri State University Oct 9.

Guru and Solar Featured in Campus Activities Magazine

Pick up the latest copy of Campus Activities Magazine to see the featured article on hip hop icon Guru and renowned producer Solar entitled "Intelligent Hip Hop". The article spans their legendary careers from Guru's iconic project Gangstarr to their present day tours with their jazz-infused hip hop concept Jazzmatazz.

Nikko Smith's "Campus Idol"

It's been a busy fall semester for American Idol Finalist Nikko Smith. In addition to his full scale concerts, Nikko has been busy hosting "Campus Idol" competitions across the country. Recent stops included Winston Salem State University, St. Charles Community College, and Broward Community College.

CAM's "Hot Music 2009"

TalentPlus Entertainment is proud to say that three of our artists were selected to be featured in Campus Activities Magazine "Hot Music 2009" list. Among those featured are singer/songwriter Javier Mendoza, southern rockers Jimmy Kennedy and the Wrecking Ball (formerly known as 'Earl'), and country sensations The Well Hungarians.

Conference Season Comes to a Close

It's been a busy two months for us with a whopping seven conferences in Tennessee, California, New York, Iowa, Oklahoma, Illinois and Texas. We were fortunate enough to have a total of 16 showcases! For a complete list of who showcased and where, visit our website. Pictured is TalentPlus' Doug Hall along with APCA Houston performers A Pair of Nuts, Junior, and Tim Session.
